

TRIP J NEWS

By Xiyanna Evans

Hey lucky people!
Today is another day in March.
When people celebrate St. Patrick's Day, search for four leaf clovers
And drink shamrock shakes from the golden arches!
(While they last...)
March is a great month to share
With friends and family.
So let's all have fun in March!

Sooooooooooooooooo, the performance as part of the Winter Jazz and Blues Series at The Lyric Theater (in Lexington) has been rescheduled, err... postponed one might say, the show has moved up to March 20th which is.... next Thursday!!!

That means we have exactly six days before we perform the big gig, we are so ready to perform I can practically feel the stage ahead of me!!! My siblings and I are ready to blow the roof off.

Day by day, we're getting closer to this amazing performance to be!!! Also, if you want to show us some support, you can come to rock out with us! The event is completely free! There's more details on the flyer below if you want to learn more.

Fun Food Friday Special March Recipe:

Every Friday our family does what we call, “Fun Food Friday”, where we taste or create (mostly both 🤪🤪🤪) other cultural meals and homemade recipes, for just about anything, and THIS month, we want to share our homemade Shamrock Shake recipe with you!

Shamrock Shake

- Makes 2 Large Shakes
- 2 Scoops Vanilla Ice Cream
- 1 Cup of Whole Milk
- 1/4 Teaspoon of Peppermint Extract
- 10 drops of green food coloring
- Chocolate Syrup, if desired

Step 1. Combine all ingredients (except chocolate syrup) in a blender, add a little more milk or cream more consistency is desired.

Step 2. Pour evenly between 2 glasses. Add chocolate syrup if desired.

Step 3. Top with whipped cream and enjoy!
Extra step: get creative! Add extra toppings like cherries, chocolate garnishes, even sprinkles to bring out your fun side! We'll be adding marshmallows to ours!
